

Custom Dye Book Bag Workshop

with ToshWerks

Saturday
6/21/25 • 2:30 pm
Community Room

You can select from 20+ different colors that inspire or best represent you. You'll then have the opportunity to embellish your book bag with the color palette of your choice to create a vibrant, functional, and sustainable piece of art. There are a multitude of different bind and dye techniques to choose from. Each of the different techniques will yield different outcomes, but each one will be the product of your mood or an expression of self and in essence an extension of your voice. Supplies are limited, so registration is required. For adults & teens.

This event is free to attend thanks to the generous support of the Friends of the Mission Hills-Hillcrest/Knox Branch Library.
