

Journey Through the Middle East

A Visual Tour with William Slomanson

Saturday, 10/19/24 • 2:30 PM • Community Room

We are all aware of the conflicts in the Middle East. But we could benefit from: (1) traveling there or (2) being taken there via William Slomanson's photo presentation of some spectacular venues and discussion about the (primarily nonpolitical) history of the "Bible Belt": Egypt, Jordan, Israel, and Palestine. Did you ever wonder about what that area of the world actually looks like? Why it's a tourist hot spot for sophisticated travelers? Attending this presentation will yield the ability to more intelligently think and communicate about the Middle East. Cosponsored by the American Society of International Law.

In addition to serving as a Professor at Thomas Jefferson School of Law, Professor Slomanson has authored, co-authored, or edited 28 books. He has lectured on international topics in numerous countries.
