Adults

Tiananmen Mission by Lillian Zheng
 Saturday, June 6th • 11:30-1:30 p.m.
 Community Room

Tiananmen Mission is a historical film about the 1989 Tiananmen Student Movement in China. It promotes courage, dignity, and freedom through the story of one young man: Zhan Jiang—a 17-year-old student leader during the movement in Tiananmen Square. He survived three bullets during the massacre on June 4, 1989, and had been in hiding for 16 years when his story was recorded. His personal account about the massacre and China is one of the most authentic Chinese narratives, and his moving journey to freedom is a great inspirational history.

Juneteenth: Its Political and Military Origins
 with Richard Crespo
 Saturday, June 6th • 2:30-4:00 p.m.
 Community Room

This presentation will explore, from a historical perspective, the political and military origins of Juneteenth, America's newest holiday. Juneteenth commemorates the day that enslaved people of African descent learned of the Emancipation Proclamation and the end to slavery on June 19, 1865.

Downsize and Revitalize
 Saturday, June 20th • 2:30-3:30 p.m.
 Community Room

Let Kathi Burns help you get organized now.

Celebrating Independence Day with Richard Lederer
 Saturday, June 27th • 2:30-3:30 p.m.
 Community Room

In 2026, we celebrate the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, our nation's birth certificate and mission statement. Richard Lederer, Union-Tribune language columnist, will talk about the significance of the Declaration and also the Constitution and the Gettysburg Address.

All Ages

Rainbow Revolution
 Saturday, June 30th • 5:00-7:00 p.m.
