Bee Boxes with Healthy Adventures
Saturday, March 7th • 2:30-3:30 p.m.
Community Room

Did you know that there are loner bees that do not belong to hives? They still help with pollination and will come to your garden if you provide them nice accommodations. Learn how to make a bee box to draw these helpers into your garden.

Find the Senior Living Community for You with Marian Karpisek
Saturday, March 14th • 2:00-3:00 p.m.
Community Room

Are you or a relative considering moving into a senior living community? Marian Karpisek will explain how to find a senior living community where it is possible to not only live out life but continue to grow and thrive. Marian is an active resident of a senior Independent Living community in Santee, California, where she has lived for over four years. Her most recent book is It's Time: Find the Senior Living Community for You. She is the creator and editor of a newsletter, Pointe of View, published monthly for residents of her Independent Living Community. She is also the author of four other books: two published by the American Library Association; a biography, William Quantrill, available from the Dover, Ohio Historical Society; and, most recently, Two Islands, Two Couples, Two Camper Vans; A New Zealand Travel Adventure, written with Joanne Lynn, and available on Amazon.

Smartphone Basics Workshop
Saturday, March 21st • 11:00-12:00 p.m.
Community Room

An introductory workshop designed to help you feel more confident using your smartphone. Learn essential skills including calls, texting, contacts, camera basics, apps, and simple settings that make daily use easier. Clear, practical, and hands-on. No technical background required.

The Art and Architecture of India
Saturday, March 21st • 2:30-3:30 p.m.
Community Room

Home to perhaps the oldest settled, farming civilizations and the oldest universities, India has been, and still is, crucial to the world's trade, culture, religions, architecture, and art. Gwenyth Mapes, Professor of Humanities at Grossmont College, will take us on a quick romp through some of its most famous art and architecture.
