Friday Flicks - Movie Titles

5/3 The Jerk

Navin (Steve Martin) believes he was born a poor black child in Mississippi. He is, however, actually white. Upon figuring this out, he heads north to St. Louis to find himself. After landing a job at a gas station, he is excited to discover his name printed in the new phone book. This ratification of his existence leads him from one misadventure to another -- as he invents gadgets, dodges bullets, joins the carnival, and seeks love in the arms of beautiful Marie.

5/10 The King's Speech

England's Prince Albert must ascend the throne as King George VI, but he has a speech impediment. Knowing that the country needs her husband to be able to communicate effectively, Elizabeth hires Lionel Logue, an Australian actor and speech therapist, to help him overcome his stammer. An extraordinary friendship develops between the two men, as Logue uses unconventional means to teach the monarch how to speak with confidence.

5/17 The Iron Giant

In Brad Bird's animated adaptation of Ted Hughes' Cold War fable, a giant alien robot crash-lands near a small town in 1957. Exploring the area, a local 9-year-old boy, Hogarth, discovers the robot, and soon forms an unlikely friendship with him. When a paranoid government agent, Kent Mansley, becomes determined to destroy the robot, Hogarth and beatnik Dean McCoppin must do what they can to save the misunderstood machine.

5/24 Dr. Strangelove

Stanley Kubrick's black comedy about what could happen if the wrong person pushed the wrong button. U.S. Air Force General Jack Ripper goes completely insane, and sends his bomber wing to destroy the U.S.S.R. He thinks that the communists are conspiring to pollute the "precious bodily fluids" of the American people.

5/31 Up in the Air

An idea from a young new coworker would put an end to the constant travel of corporate downsizer Ryan Bingham (George Clooney), so he takes her on a tour to demonstrate the importance of face-to-face meetings with those they must fire. While mentoring his colleague, he arranges hookups with another frequent-flyer, and his developing feelings for the woman prompt him to see others in a new light.

The Literary Lens: Book vs Film

Saturday, May 25th • 3:15-5:45 p.m.

Community Room

Join us for The Literary Lens! A new book/film club where we'll watch a film one month and then discuss the book the following month. We'll focus on the differences and similarities between the two mediums, and also which version we think is better! Our first movie/book is The Martian, the film starring Matt Damon and the book written by Andy Weir.
