Meet author Susan Goldbeck as she discusses her new historical novel. This is San Diego as you have never known it!

New Town, an exciting slice of history, set in 1902, tells of San Diego's journey from a dusty, western town where Wyatt Earp roamed the streets, to a modern city on the world stage. The story is told through the eyes of a young reporter, Mary Kate Riley, as she covers an important trial that pits San Diego against archrival Los Angeles.
