Journey Through the Middle East: A Visual Tour
Saturday, October 19th • 2:30 - 4:00 p.m.

We are all aware of the conflicts in the Middle East. But we could benefit from: (1) traveling there or (2) being taken there via William Slomanson's photo presentation of some spectacular venues and discussion about the (primarily nonpolitical) history of the "Bible Belt": Egypt, Jordan, Israel, and Palestine. Did you ever wonder about what that area of the world actually looks like? Why it's a tourist hot spot for sophisticated travelers? Attending this presentation will yield the ability to more intelligently think and communicate about the Middle East. Cosponsored by the American Society of International Law.
